Nick Pelletier

(438) 680-1479 | nickw.pelletier@gmail.com | Montreal, Quebec H2X3H1

Professional Summary

Aspiring full stack developer with a strong creative and technical foundation. I am eager to contribute my skills and am seeking stage/internship or employment starting January 15, 2024.

Portfolio: https://nwpelletier.github.io/
LinkedIn: https://www.linkedin.com/in/nwpelletier/
Github: https://github.com/nwpelletier/

Skills

- Java
- HTML5, CSS3
- React, Razor Pages, JQuery

- JavaScript, TypeScript
- MySQL, MongoDB
- Linux, Docker

- C# .NET
- AWS Cloud, Azure Cloud
- Agile Methodology, Trello, Git

Projects

CRUDdit - Reddit Clone App
*Account registration/login, create a subreddit, make a post (text/image), comment on posts or other comments. Created with JS, React, MySQL, AWS EC2/S3

NPM Job Board - Indeed Clone App
*Register as user, hiring manager, admin. Includes external APIs (images/logos), email notifications. Created with ASP .NET Core 8.0, Razor Pages, Azure SQL, JS

Blackjack Web Game
*Player-vs-dealer game built with JS, jQuery. Includes triggered sound effects.

Experience

Sound Recording Technician   September 2019 - June 2022
McGill University
- Production tasks included recording, editing, mixing, and mastering projects ranging from small ensembles to full symphonic concerts.

VFX Production Assistant   August 2016 - August 2018
Industrial Light and Magic, Vancouver
- Assisted with multiple facets of visual effects production (communications with external ILM studios and third-party companies, scheduling shot-work, training new hires, note taking and database updates)

Education

AEC: Computer Science - John Abbott College, Montreal   January 2024
1,305-hour intensive program offering hands- on training in full stack development. Courses are project based.

Master's: Sound Recording - McGill University   April 2021

Bachelor: Music - University of Ottawa   April 2013